

Shoes

Color and style in the new 'Manolos'

Bárbara Fernández - 26/01/2012

Renowned shoe designer Manolo Blahnik has presented its new spring / summer 2012 with models elegant, luxurious, timeless and without platform, with a last that provides the comfort needed to step in style. A shoe for life, which can take anywhere from 20 years girls to women 60. And is that .. Who has not dreamed of having Manolos?

MADRID deluxe has been there and teaches its readers the choice of footwear designer who created the canary. Color and diversity in the heel are the key in this collection that leaves no one indifferent, from a single silver dial up a heel with 6 balls stacked vertically are some proposals to tread with glamor.

Different designs that share a common characteristic: the elegance and also ... the urge to run around as Carrie in Sex in New York.

Some of his inspirations were Henri Matisse and botany, so present in his life Canaries. For example, you created a bunch of shoes with bright green leaves and acorns hanging from the ankle, another model that juxtaposes the new ball heeled pink carnations ahead or peep toe sandal with flowers in linen with a band at the ankle. And is that the vegetation and the colors could not miss.

Special mention also has the inspitación in the Olympics. On the occasion of the next edition, Blahnik has created several Olympic-inspired designs, in which gold, silver and bronze are the key colors in reference to the medals. Another reference is metallic sandals inspired by the footwear used by the ancient Greeks, the key for him this season.

Even the classics come with news. The model asked Sedaraby is already part of the permanent collection for the new season and come with black satin, silver skin and a fun blue linen with white spots. On the other hand, the BB pointed lounge has a new brother named BBR has a rounded tip and a straight and square heel. Thus, clients' requests are orders to Blahnik.

To finish, Manolo is also working with two designers this season London: Antonio Berardi and Richard Nicoll. And, as we know, Manolo Blahnik has no boundaries

...

More information <http://www.manoloblahnik.com/>

